How to Avoid Those Pains and Distress Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered.

It is a pity more women do not know of Mother's Friend. Here is a remedy that softens the muscles, enables them to expand without any strain upon the ligaments, and enables women to go through maternity without pain, nausea, morning sickness or any of the distressing symptoms so familiar to many mothers. There is no foolish diet to harass the mind. The thought do not dwell upon pain and suffering, for all such are avoided. Thousands of women no longer resign themselves to the thought that sickness and distress are natural. They know better, for in Mother's Friend they have found a wonderful, penetrating remedy to banish all those dreaded experiences. It is a subject every woman should be familiar with, and even though she may not require such a remedy, she will now and then meet some prospective mother to whom a word in time about Mother's Friend will come as a wonderful blessing. This famous remedy is sold by all druggists, and is only $1.00 a bottle. It is for external use only, and is really worth its weight in gold. Write today to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 127 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most valuable book.

UNTOLD MISERY WITH ECZEMA

On Face in Red Pimples. Itched and Burned. Scratched Until Bled. Ashamed of Face. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Franklin, La.—"About four years ago my face broke out in little red pimples. At first the eczema did not bother, but finally the pimples began itching and burning and then there came little raised places. I suffered untold misery. I scratched them until they bled and I could not sleep at night. I was ashamed of my face and I could not bear to touch it."

"I tried different remedies without result until I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in six weeks they completely cured my face. That was nine months ago and no sign has appeared since." (Signed) Mrs. Leola Stennett, Dec. 14, 1912.

FOR PIMPLES AND BLACKHEADS

The following is a most effective and economical treatment: (Cuticura Soap and Ointment, on the end of the finger, but do not rub. Wash off the Cuticura Ointment in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water and continue bathing for some minutes. This treatment is best on rising and retiring. At other times use Cuticura Soap freely for the toilet and bath, to assist in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, South Bend, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child—the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

REUTER CASE IS OUTLINED

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, AND A RECESS TAKEN UNTIL MONDAY—PROSECUTOR TALKS.

Bartlesville, Okla., Jan. 17.—Prosecutor Pat Malloy's outline in the Reuter case Friday was an indication that one of the bitterest legal contests in the history of Oklahoma will be fought out in the trial of Mrs. Laura M. Reuter in the district court here, charged with conspiracy in causing the death of her husband, Charles T. Reuter, who was murdered at his home on the night of May 5, 1912, in Tulsa. He told of the alleged relations between the accused woman, and Guy MacKenzie, now serving a life term in the state penitentiary for the part he is alleged to have played in the killing of Reuter.

The prosecutor told of the alleged visits MacKenzie had made to the Reuter home at times when Reuter was not present; of how Reuter had warned MacKenzie to stay away from his home; of how Reuter had found MacKenzie in his home two days before the tragedy, in which the appearance of Mrs. Reuter aroused the suspicions of her husband, and it was then that Reuter told Mrs. Reuter and MacKenzie that he would kill MacKenzie. The prosecutor also stated the state expects to show that the presence of MacKenzie in the Reuter home had caused much comment by neighbors and, therefore, he warned him to remain away from his home.

The prosecutor stated the state expects to show that MacKenzie had discussed the killing of Reuter only a short time before the tragedy, that he had suggested to Bud Bellow that the Arkansas river would be a good place to bury "Charlie," that he suggested he would meet Reuter and kill him and throw a gun down in front of him and thereby prove that he shot in self-defense; that he also asked Joe Miller if he would be willing to "bump off" Reuter for $200, and that Miller told MacKenzie that it was possible to get a man in Chicago to kill Reuter for that price.

Mrs. Reuter Feeling Better.

Mrs. Reuter was present in court Friday. Her nurse announced Friday night that her "charge" was feeling much better and that she expected there will be no delay in the trial of the case. Following a sharp clash, in which attorney Ben Thompson stated he objected to a further delay of the trial for the reason that the defendant was perfectly able to proceed and that he was interested in the trial of cases in Creek county, he asked the court that the trial proceed, and Judge Allen directed that the first witness for the state be called.

The court stated that if attorneys in the case wished to argue the matter, they could do so after court adjourned. Judge Allen announced Friday night that there would be an adjournment of court until Monday morning. He admonished bailiffs and jurors that they must keep together and that they should not read or discuss the case. He also directed the sheriff to see that the floor of the court room was properly braced at the time court convenes Monday morning.

Sharp clashes marked the session of court Friday morning, in which attorneys for the defense and the Tulsa county prosecutor were arrayed against each other. Mr. Malloy attempted to inject many alleged facts into the case in which he was attempting to connect the accused woman with the murder plot, and all of the time attorneys for the defense were making vigorous objections. The trial will be resumed Monday morning. Judge Allen having excused the jurors Friday evening. Mrs. Reuter's children were here Friday night and will remain during the trial.

SALAZAR ARRESTED WHILE ABOARD TRAIN

WAS EN ROUTE TO JOIN FEDERALS IN MEXICO, BELIEVED ORZCO AND OTHERS IN TEXAS.

Presidio, Texas, Jan. 17.—Efforts of the border authorities to round up the Mexican federal generals who fled from Ojinaga, Mexico, before the rebels, resulted Friday in the arrest at Sanderson, Texas, of General Jose Ynez Salazar, who was taken from a train while en route to join the federal garrison in Mexico, opposite Eagle Pass, Texas.

Salazar is the seventh Mexican general to come into the custody of the United States authorities. The others are Generals Mercado, Castro, Orpinal, Landa, Aduana and Romero. Three others still are missing, but are believed to be in hiding in Texas. They are Generals Pascual Orozco, Marcello Caraveo and Antonio Rojas. Wanted in El Paso.

Salazar, who achieved distinction through his raids on the Mormon colonies in northern Mexico, is wanted at Santa Fe, N. M., where he was indicted on charges of conspiracy to smuggle arms and ammunition into Mexico. He was arrested in El Paso, but forfeited his bond. Orozco, also under indictment, never was arrested. Salazar was playing cards in the train when captured. He at once admitted his identity and was taken to Marfa to be put under bond for his appearance in Santa Fe. The military authorities, however, prepared to rearrest him and removed him to El Paso with the other federal soldiers and generals who escaped to this country. The capture of Salazar convinced the border patrol that Orozco and Caraveo possibly with other soldiers and officers, were hiding in Texas. Salazar jokingly said that he
